

LOST ANIMALS AND ANIMAL ASSISTANCE

Lost Pets:

- County Department of Animal Services (619) 236-4250
Lost pets will be held at County animal shelters for an extended period of time to allow owners to reclaim them.
- San Diego Humane Society & SPCA (619) 299-7012

Large animals/Livestock:

- Large animals and livestock will be held for an extended period at temporary emergency shelters (858) 509-5245
- People can be reunited with evacuated livestock at the Lakeside Rodeo at 12584 Mapleview St. and the county fairgrounds in Del Mar.

Assistance with housing and movement of animals:

- County Department of Animal Services (619) 236-4250 and the San Diego Humane Society & SPCA (619) 299-7012 have lists of people willing to take in small animals.
- The North County Humane Society in Oceanside is offering to help animals displaced by the fires find a temporary home with families outside the fire zone. The society also has some cages for pet owners who need them during the emergency (760) 757-4357 Ext. 1244

Dead Animal Disposal

- A private company provides the service and a fee will apply. (858) 279-8242
For additional information call Department of Animal Services 619-236-4250.

To give donations of medical supplies, pet supplies or cash for animal assistance, call 299-7012, Ext. 2245 or 2218 (San Diego Humane Society & SPCA)